EDITORIAL FLINGS

"Ah! I saw the princess slip!"
Said the preacher to the teacher
As she stumbled on the stairs.
"Fresh old thing, don't you get flip!"
Quoth the teacher to the preacher,
"What you saw was teddy bears."

There is a disposition in this day and generation to spend money and energy in memory of dead heroes and causes, and pass over the sad-eyed individual hungry and cold, half-clad and starving. Hero worship is all right, but living, suffering humanity should not be pushed aside in the scramble.

A Paris man who has his face turned toward the future, after listening to an argument on "Evolution" in a local restaurant the other night, remarked that it did not concern him very much as to where his ancestors came from, but what bothered him most was where he was going to land when he tucked his toes under the daisies.

State Senator Brock has yet another bill requiring newspapers to publish any epistle a public official may choose to address to it in reply to editorial criticism of his public acts. The bill should include a provision that the author of the epistle shall pay space and libel costs for his effusion. And then it should end with the provision that the epistle should pay some heed to the rules of grammar and orthography. And then — it should be killed.

God created men and women and left the loafers on the street corners, and in due time they multiplied and spread into the stores, the pool rooms, the waiting stations, the restaurants, the postoffice lobby, and all the other public places of the city, where they are spending their time trying to convince the people that they alone are capable of solving the problem of evolution, city, county, State and National affairs, and many others that have vexed the minds of many men of the past.

"Pape's Cold Compound"
Breaks any Cold
in Few Hours

Instant Relief! Don't stay stuff-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up any cold.

The very first dose opens clogged nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness. "Pape's Cold Compound" costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's!

They say that half a loaf is better than no loaf at all, but many a new husband doesn't believe it.
